The Jewish service in Progress Hall yesterday afternoon was well attended.
The service was opened by A. M. Mellis who stated the object of the meeting.
L. Newman followed with a reading and then J. Silver offered a prayer in Hebrew for the peace, prosperity and future greatness of the Territory of impressive address. A. M. Mellis gave the closing prayer.

While boarding the Erskine M. yesterday, the rope ladder slipped causing Pilot Lorenson to fall into the water, first striking the gunwale of the boat. Niho and Apaki, two of the most stalwart natives in the employ of the pilot office, jumped overboard and got the captain aboard again. He brought the Phelps in but he was badly bruised. It is probable that he will be in the house several days.

Cruiser Protet.

San Francisco, June 3.—The French cruiser Protet was to have sailed tomorrow for Seattle after a sojourn of several weeks here but will remain a week longer, sailing on the 11th. Commodore Germet states that he finds San Francisco a very congenial port, and that he has been very hospitably entertained, not only by his own countrymen but by Americans. He hopes to visit this city again upon the expiration of his commission, two years hence. The Protet is not expected to leave the Pacific for at least three years, and will pass most of the time in the South seas.
